GENERAL INFORMATION

The Department of Finance reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Equal Employment Opportunity: The State of California is an equal opportunity employer to all, regardless of age, ancestry, color, disability (mental and physical), exercising the right to family care and medical leave, gender, gender expression, gender identity, genetic information, marital status, medical condition, military or veteran status, national origin, political affiliation, race, religious creed, sex (includes pregnancy, childbirth, breastfeeding and related medical conditions), and sexual orientation.

State Drug Policy: It is the objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free state workplace. Any applicant for state employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of illegal drugs is inconsistent with the law of the state, the rules governing civil service, and the special trust placed in public servants.

Competitor's Responsibility: It is the competitor's responsibility to contact the Department of Finance, Human Resources Office, Examination Services, at (916) 323-4071, Telecommunications Device for the Deaf (TDD) (916) 324-6547, three days prior to the written test date if a notice has not been received. For an examination without a written feature, it is the competitor's responsibility to contact the Human Resources Office at (916) 323-4071, or TDD 324-6547 three weeks after the final filing date if they have not received a progress notice.

General Qualifications: Competitors must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and the ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the classification. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Applicants who meet the requirements stated on this bulletin may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not ensure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the other side of this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test (based upon job-related criteria), and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

Promotional Examinations: Competition is limited to those who meet one of the criteria listed under "Who Should Apply" and "Requirements for Admittance to the Examination." Under certain circumstances others may be allowed to compete under the provisions of California Code of Regulations (CCR), Sections 234, 235, and 235.2. The CCR Sections 233, 234, 235, 235.2, and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or CalHR.

Privacy Policy: Pursuant to Government Code Section 11019.9 and Management Memo 00-14, the Department of Finance maintains a permanent privacy policy pursuant to adherence with the Information Practices Act of 1997. The Department's Privacy Policy is posted on the Department's Website
